9th Day of Advent

Read Isaiah 7:10-16

In our world today we get weary, and I am sure God gets weary, looking down on our human behavior. We should not put God to the test. He has given us all so very much. Most importantly, He gave us his Son.

So, as we prepare ourselves this Advent season to again, honor the birth of the Prince of Peace, may we pray for peace, peace for the whole world.
