Shine Your Light

Have you even spoken about the Gospel to an unbeliever, or to one who has never had the opportunity to know about God's love? It truly is as if a veil has blinded their mind. It is sad to say that I have personal experience with this, even among my own siblings. My older brother was raised in the church but (along with his wife) chose not to raise their children in the church. Opportunities have arisen to share my faith with my neices, but it has been very difficult. Often, I feel that God has placed me into these situations, just so that He can speak through me, even when I am at a loss of words.

There is good news... As light was the beginning of the first creation (Genesis1:3-5); so, in the new creation, the light of the Spirit is His work upon the soul. The Gospel light has been placed in our hearts by the Holy Spirit. As we share that light with others, it is the work of the Holy Spirit that will lift the veil for others. He uses us (weak and humble) that His power might be glorified.

This little light of mine, I'm going to let it shine..... Hide it under a bushel? NO! I'm going to let it shine. Amen.
